

Title: University Attendance Policy Change

A major university has announced a new policy requiring 90% mandatory attendance for all students starting next semester.

Key details:

- Students below 90% attendance will not be allowed to sit for exams.
- No exceptions for medical or personal reasons unless officially approved.
- Policy will be strictly enforced with digital attendance tracking.

Initial reactions:

- Students are frustrated and protesting on social media.
- Faculty members are divided; some support discipline, others oppose strictness.
- Parents are concerned about student stress levels.

Social media trends:

- Hashtag #AttendanceRule is trending.
- Mixed opinions: some support discipline, others call it unrealistic.

Goal:

Predict how public opinion, student behavior, and institutional response will evolve over the next 30 days.
